                                  +++++++                                   +++++++

Hello everybody! You have downloaded new JSW game: "Frosya the cat"...
It is a 128K JSW game for ZX Spectrum or its emulator. To play it you must have the emulator that you can download from internet (for example from my site).

First of all I have to introduce myself - my name is Igor, I'm from Russia, Moscow. From the early years I'm fond of JSW. When I bought a modem, and had an internet I found that there are a lot of people who like JSW as much as me. Though this game isn't 3D, though it hasn't a super sound and so on, it is very nice and interesting game.

The package with this game includes:

- FROSYENG.Z80 - the game itself (tap)
- FROSYENG.Z80 - the game itself (z80)
- README.TXT - this file
- VERSION.TXT - the version you're using
- FROSYA.GPG - photo of my cat Frosya (the hero of the game) with her kittens (the heroes).
- RULE.TXT - the main rule

A few words about this game:

There was a 1997 year, August the 2nd. Russia. Our country-house where we spend summers. Frosya is our cat. That time Frosya had kittens. She loved them very much - they were very beautiful. Both of them were orange and Frosya had near four colours. And they loved Frosya very much too. One night he slept with them and had a terrible dream: a dog, called UZOR, that we got a few days ago catnapped one of her kids. She woke up and saw that there is only ONE kitten with her.

- What's happened, dear? - she asked kitten.
- Meow.. mommy - one ugly dog came..., - the kitten replies.
- Continue.. oh NO! , - mommy shoke her head.
- Yes, it took my brother somewhere in the darkness, the dog wanted to take me too, but I lay under your paw and it didn't notice me!
- It is a terrible dream!, - Frosya said.
- No! Poor brother! He cried but you slept.
- I don't understand, wait... well, my son is in UZOR's paws, right?, - Frosya asked, getting out from their comfortable box.
- Yes. It was so terrible!
- I could imagine it.
- What ought we do?
- Well, there is nothing to do but to kill that dog! - replied Frosya with tears on her eyes.
- Where is it now, mommy?, - asked son.
- I know - it is here.

Frosya left her son in the box and went to the other side of the attic. Under the roof she saw two devilish eyes of a dog. It was UZOR - gray and black dog, higher and stronger than Frosya. Frosya jumped on that dog with sharp paws.

- You fucking dog - give me my son!, - shouted she.
- UZOR opened his mouth and shouted in a high voice.
- You.. nervous catty, now you came..., - he said.
- Yes, I'll kick your ass, bitch!, - shouted our Frosya.
- In your dreams, you know...; And Frosya made a good wound on UZOR's face the black blood appeared.
- Get out of our family, Frosyette, -said UZOR.
- Why.. why are you so evil?
- I'm won't be so evil if you won't do that a few days ago...
- What?
- Yes, I'm not as nobel as you, Frosya. While you were drinking warm milk, sitting on a soft pillow, I had to drink icy water from the pond, sitting on a sticking bunch of garbage. I don't remember my mother - when I was born, somebody put me in a bag and throw me into water. I was a puppet that time and couldn't swim at all! When I was in water, somebody cathed the bag with me and opened it. It was an old woman she gave me a piece of sausage and milk. It was one of the happiest days in my life. That day I made my first step without my mother.

... Here UZOR cried with tears on his eyes ...

- That doesn't mean that you can take my kittens, -said Frosya with the evilness in her words.
- ... I didn't have a home from that day. Kind people gave me food. It was terrible. I spent the whole two months on the street... and then your host - Igor took me.
- And..., - meowned Frosya.
- So, - when he brought me to you home everybody was happy, but you - you didn't let me come in! There was your friend near your - that stupid black cat BAGIR.
- He is my cat-friend, - said Frosya.
- Do you remember? I had to bring you 255, as I now remember, surprises, so you got out of my way and I could come in.. Remember???

- Yes. That`s my house - what I want - I do.
- We could live in peace and you didn`t want - so do I.
- Oh..
- I won`t give back your kitten, bring me everything tasty what you will find.

EVERYTHING. A total of 255. Then we will speak. I`ll give back your kitten.

Frosya went out depressed. She went to her kitten again.

- Mommy, where is my brother, is he O`key?
- Son, you know, that I love both of you, but I love each of you very much. I`ll have to rescue your brother. And the only way to do it - is to bring UZOR what he asks for.

- What, Mommy?
- Everthing what can be put in the mouth.

And then you press ENTER and the game begins...

As I already said, the game contains 136 rooms and 19 rooms that you can only see, using an editor. I have changed everything. Everything is new - the only old sprite is Sendy`s jumping guy. There is no music in the game - it`s a pity but I couldn`t make it. Sorry - you`ll have to play in the silence.

Note, that Frosya is a big sprite - so some tricks couldn`t be made.

I tested the game and deleted all bugs - who knows, maybe some of them left, so tell me about them.
